Specie

General Specie is a Lloyd's term that reflects the longevity of the Lloyd's Insurance market. Specie is an old English word that is the collective noun for high value interests such as cash, securities, stones, gold and other precious metals.

The Channel Syndicate specialises in providing insurance solutions for Specie held by international financial institutions. The coverage provided is "All Risks of Physical Loss or Damage" both whilst the Specie is in transit and whilst held in vaults.
